Dear Friends,

I am inviting you to join other new thought ministers, RSI, Unity, Divine Science and more, in discussing New Thought Philosophy and its application to contemporary world issues on a list serve (Yahoo group). You will be able to set and maintain your own subscription to the group, deciding to either receive individual emails or a summary of the messages or pick up the messages when you desire. You can also easily change your email address and unsubscribe when you've had enough.

I hope you will join and also tell all your non-UCRS minister friends in the New Thought movement about this additional place to stand and speak to the issues of our world.

If you wish to join, please click on the link below. You will be asked to sign up for a yahoo groups users ID. It is a free service and if you have difficulties, email me directly and I'll add you.
