

Subject: Community Outreach – Wanna BLOG with Me?

From: Dr. Larry R. Pesta
Lpesta@cox.net

I have just added a BLOG to my www.religiousscience.info page for Religious Science Ministers. This page serves as a resource page for the sharing of ideas and the exchange of information.

To find out what a BLOG is and to do some BLOGGING and to become an official BLOGGER, go directly to this site:

<http://religiousscienceinfo.typepad.com/ministers/>

This BLOG is only for UCRS ministers at this time. Another BLOG is being designed for the general public.

You will need the following information to enter the site:

Username: Ernest

Password: Holmes

Please do not give this Username and Password out to anyone that does not fit the minister category. This is a site I have designed exclusively for us. It is my gift to you!
