Commitment

Until one is committed, there is hesitancy, the chance to draw back, always ineffectiveness.

Concerning all acts of initiative (& creation), there is one elementary truth – the ignorance of which kills countless ideas & splendid plans:

*That the moment one definitely commits oneself,
then Providence moves, too.*

All sorts of things occur to help one that would never otherwise have occurred. A whole stream of events issue from the decision, raising in one's favor all manner of unforeseen incidents, meetings & material assistance, which no man could have dreamed would have come his way.

I have learned a deep respect for one of Goethe's couplets:

Whatever you can do, or dream you can, begin it.

Boldness has genius, power and magic in it.

Begin it now.
