

Subject: Youth & Family Ministries – Resource for Talking about War

Submitted by: Marelu Marson

marelum@comcast.net

Here's an excellent resource for helping parents and teachers know how to address and answer questions about topics related to war. It is a tri-fold brochure written by Elizabeth Crary, a well-known Northwest author and parent educator, for Parenting Press. You can download it from their website, make copies, and share it with your families.

www.parentingpress.com/war/12tips.html

Parenting Press has a long and successful track record for offering excellent resources for parents and those who work with parents. Their homepage is www.parentingpress.com.